

Amersham Town Council Britain In Bloom Young Environmental Photography Competition

Amersham Town Council is running a photographic competition, in conjunction with The Rotary Club of Amersham.

“We are inviting students throughout Amersham to take photographs”

We are searching for images that reflect the theme of the competition:

Britain in Bloom: 2010 The Year of Bio-diversity.

The year that celebrates the diversity of life on Earth, including every plant, animal and micro-organism

This competition is open to young people with two age categories:
Junior: Aged 7 – 15 years Youth: Aged 16-18 years

About your entries:

1. All entries should reflect the theme
2. Each entrant can submit up to two digital photographs
3. All entries must be in digital format and sent to info@amersham-tc.gov.uk The photograph should be attached to the email with photo submission in the subject line, along with your full name, date of birth, address and school
4. The photograph should not infringe any copyright and be the entrants own work
5. The winning photographs will remain the property of the photographer but will be published on the Town Council website and in other Town Council publicity
6. The competition runs from 1 April. 31 July 2010 with the prizes awarded by the Mayor on Heritage Open Day on Sunday 12 September 2010

For all terms and conditions see www.amersham-tc.gov.uk and all enquiries regarding the competition should be addressed to: Steve Catanach at Amersham Town Council. Email: info@amersham-tc.gov.uk Tel: 01494 586892

The winning prize in each category is a 10MP Compact Camera